CONCORDIA GREY NUNS RESIDENCE

1190, Guy Street
MONTREAL, QC. CANADA

A comfortable and affordable accommodation option, an oasis in Montreal's bustling city centre.

The Grey Nuns Residence is located in the heart of downtown Montreal. Steps away from renowned attractions, restaurants, theatres and museums, the beautiful and impressive historical building is the best kept secret for affordable group housing and low-budget travelers coming to Montréal!

A legacy of love, compassion, and commitment. Since 1737, The Sisters of Charity of Montreal, "Grey Nuns", have maintained their mission of love, respect, and compassion for poor, the sick, abandoned children, and deprived people as it was defined by their Foundress, Saint Marguerite d'Youville, a widow and mother of two (Marie-Marguerite Dufrost de la Jemmerais) who crossed the Atlantic to come to the Nouvelle France. In 1871, the congregation moved from Old Montreal into the Mother House, designed by renowned architect Victor Bourgeau. The former home of the Roman Catholic Congregation of the Sisters of Charity of Montreal is now part of Concordia University.
